

“Blessed Is The Man”

Psalms 1

- ## Outline Psalms 1:1-6
- The blessedness of the righteous man.
    - His character. 1:1-2
    - His prosperity. 1:3
  - The condition of the unrighteous.
    - Nothing like the righteous. 1:4
    - No good end. 1:5
  - The final contrast between the two “ways.”
    - The righteous. 1:6
    - The unrighteous. 1:6

Blessedness Of The Righteous

Character of the happy man. 1:1-2

Negative:

- “walketh not in the counsel of the wicked”
  - Going along with the crowd.
- “nor standeth in the way of sinners”
  - Taking a stand with the crowd.
- “nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers”
  - Sinning is not enough, mockery is added.

Blessedness Of The Righteous

Character of the happy man. 1:1-2

Positive:

“But his delight is in the law of Jehovah.” cf. Psalms 119:16, 24, 35, 47, 70, 77, 92, 174; Jeremiah 15:16-17; Psalms 19:7-14

“and on his law doth he meditate day and night.” (Moan, utter, speak ... cf. Joshua 1:8)

NOTE: Habitually, sets aside time...

Condition Of The Unrighteous

No good end. Verse 5

“Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,

“nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.”

Psalms 1 Final Contrast

“The way of the righteous.

The Lord “knows” cf. Psalms 23:4

The way of the wicked.”

“Perish” Ruin